Personal skills and competences

Mother tongue(s) English
Other language(s) None

Social skills and competences I have worked successfully in a variety of institutions (research, executive and advisory), countries (Ireland, Canada and the UK) and roles (researcher, executive and administrator).

Organisational skills and competences I have demonstrated the ability to organise and lead whether it is a research project at the ESRI, a merger investigation or a court case at the Competition Authority or an entire organisation at the Northern Ireland Economic Council or course when I taught at Simon Fraser University, Burnaby British Columbia (1976-77, full time) or Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada (1977-78, part-time)..

Technical skills and competences I am applied micro economist and, as such, apply those tools to real world situations whether it is reviewing the merits of a packaging tax, a proposed merger, the feasibility of competition amongst producer responsibility organisations or setting out an economic approach to municipal waste policy.

Computer skills and competences | I type all my own papers.
